An Introduction to the Argentine Tango,
and to a Modern Approach to its Pedagogy.

Guest Speaker: Daniel Trenner

The Tango is the dance of the city of Buenos Aires, and has a rich tradition of social, dance and musical culture. Daniel Trenner, lived in Buenos Aires from 1986-2001, and experienced the tango's modern revival. He was also known as the "Johnny Appleseed" of Tango in North America during the formative years here. Read more at danieltrenner.com. Daniel will be joined by some of his students and there may be an opportunity for audience participation.

Reservations required by Feb. 19. Call the CBI Office at 413-584-3593 x 202.
